

Utilization Review (UR) Complaint Form
State of California
Division of Workers' Compensation Medical Unit

Utilization review complaint form

What it is and how to use it

Utilization review (UR) is the process used by employers or insurance companies to review treatment to determine if it is medically necessary. All employers or the insurance companies handling workers' compensation claims are required by law to have a UR program. This program will be used to decide whether or not to approve medical treatment recommended by a physician.

The UR process is governed by Labor Code section 4610 and regulations written by the CA Division of Workers' Compensation (DWC). The DWC regulations are contained in Title 8, California Code of Regulations, sections 9792.6 et seq.

Medical providers, injured workers or others who find that UR is not being done according to the regulations can file a complaint with the DWC. The attached form should be used to register a complaint regarding UR services connected with workers' compensation injuries and treatment.

Injured workers may also benefit from reading the UR fact sheet (A) at <http://www.dir.ca.gov/dwc/iwguides.html>.

Please fill out the form as completely as possible, checking all complaint boxes that apply. Please include any additional information or documentation required to clarify the details of your complaint.

Completed complaint forms can be sent by U.S. mail, fax or e-mail to the address provided at the bottom of the form.

Glossary of terms:

Supporting documentation: All written material related to the complaint(s), including letters or faxes regarding modification, delay or denial of specific treatment request(s).

ACOEM: The American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine. The state of California is currently using the ACOEM Practice Guidelines, Second Edition, as its medical treatment guidelines.

